

Write a diary entry about one of your snow days.

Be creative and share your unique experiences to make your diary entries fun and personal! You could add a drawing/image at the bottom. I'm excited to hear all about what you've been up to!

Imagine it's the end of a magical snow day, and you've had lots of fun (or maybe faced some challenges) at home. Write a diary entry to share your thoughts, feelings, and the exciting things you have done. Make sure your diary entry has the following features:

Diary Features to Include

1. Date and opening: Start with "Dear Diary" and include the date at the top.
2. Write in the first person: Use "I," "me," and "my" to describe your experiences.
3. Use correct punctuation: Capital letters, full stops, commas.
4. Include your thoughts and feelings: How did you feel about the snow? Were you excited, cold, or a little bored?
5. Describe what happened (organise events into paragraphs): Share details about your day. Did you build a snowman, have a snowball fight, drink hot chocolate, or stay cozy indoors?
6. End with a closing: Wrap up with a sentence like "That's all for today" or "I can't wait for tomorrow!"

Questions to help you get started

What did you do first when you saw all the snow?

Did you spend time with family, friends, or pets?

What was your favourite moment of the day?

Did anything funny, surprising, or challenging happen?

Dear Diary,

What a day it has been! I woke up this morning to see the whole world covered in a sparkling blanket of snow. I couldn't believe how white and fluffy everything looked. The first thing I did was.....
